

SUBJECT HEADER:

Are you complying with Section 1102(b)(3)?

EMAIL BODY COPY:

Dear Attorney:

Are you trying a bankruptcy case in the near future?

If so, have you found that complying with Section 1102(b)(3) is going to be more challenging than you thought?

Here's a solution.

Let us handle the information sharing requirements of the Creditors' Committee for you.

Beard Creditor Communications provides information sharing services at a fraction of the cost of other providers. In most instances, our hourly rates are less than half of our competitors.

We offer total quality service with a variety of protocols to help manage and customize your communication process more efficiently:

- Dedicated Web sites;
- E-mail notifications;
- Case-specific newsletters;
- Bankruptcy-related audio conferences.

As an independent, third-party provider of non-confidential/non-privileged information, we do not have any financial interests with debtors or creditors.

For additional information about our specific services, fee structures, and a link to our demo site so you can see how Beard Creditor Communications will make your job easier, please click here.

If you are interested or have any questions, please contact us at 240-629-3300, ext. 13.

We look forward to helping you.
